ROBERTS ATTACKS BOTHA'S ARMY

Gains Some Ground, But the Boers are Not Beaten.

Lines of Communication Restored
BY A BRITISH VICTORY

Methuen and Kitchener Defeat Gen. DeWitt, Camp Captured and Burghers Scattered.

DeWitt's Army Scattered.
By Associated Press to the Journal.
LONDON, June 13.—Lord Roberts' line of communications has been practically restored by a complete victory gained by Generals Methuen and Kitchener over General DeWitt yesterday. The Boer camp was captured and the burghers, it is added, scattered in all directions.

THE STATE TROOPS HARASS THE BRITISH

New York, June 13.—A dispatch in the Tribune, from London, says: Bad news from the Free State comes out slowly from the war office. The line of communications was cut on Wednesday, the day after Lord Roberts entered Pretoria, but the fact was not admitted until Monday, that there had been severe fighting at Rooiberg, and that the militia battalion of the Derbyshire Regiment and other details had been taken prisoners.

These details were guarding the railway where the Boer raiders struck the line of communications, and their casualties were wounded. So far as reported the defense of the militia was clearly vigorous, but the force was outnumbered, and the Boers were enabled to destroy the railway for over 20 miles. This unfavorable news has caused keen disappointment in military circles here, but there is no disposition on the part of well-informed men to censure Lord Roberts. The Free State forces have delivered an effective counter stroke, and have taken over a thousand prisoners at Lindley and Rooiberg.

They have thrown the British campaign into disorder by their brilliant strategy, and have learned by experience how much mischief they can cause by harassing the British line of communications.

The British forces will be massed against the Free State commandos as soon as Lord Roberts gets control of the wires.

LORD ROBERTS OFFICIAL DISPATCH

By Associated Press to the Journal.
Roberts' dispatch follows: "Pretoria, June 13.—After surrendering the city, Botha retired to a place 15 miles east. I attacked him Monday. I sent French round by our left, and Ian Hamilton round by our right. Both columns met with great opposition. About 3 in the afternoon I saw two infantry battalions advance to what appeared to be the key of the enemy's defense on the left flank. This was almost gone before dark and I ordered the force to bivouac on the ground they had won. At the Rhenoster river, Monday, Methuen gained a complete victory over DeWitt, took possession of his camp and scattered his troops in all directions. He and Kitchener marched today toward Kroonstad.

Her Majesty's government need have no apprehension as to the security of the army in South Africa. The enemy gained a slight success, which will be remedied very shortly, and it will take a long time to repair the damage to the railway. Our losses on Monday were serious, but I deplore the death of the gallant soldier, Earl Airlie. The only other casualties reported as yet are: Major Lionel Fortescue and Lieut. C. Caverd sh, both killed."

SALEM STREETS. Street Officials are Getting a Move On--Loose Rocks Removed.

Street Commissioner Frizzell is replanking the driveway of the big steel bridge across the Willamette River at Salem. The expense of this work is borne by the City of Salem and Marion and Polk Counties.

The City Council has authorized the Street Commissioner to employ two extra men to remove the loose stones from the streets. Salem streets are paved with gravel, and at this season of the year many stones are loosened and make travel with carriages or bicycles very disagreeable. The penitentiary authorities recently had convicted remove the loose stones from East State street, and the improvement was so great that the city authorities decided to improve the city streets in the same way. The gravel taken off the streets is not hauled to a distance, but is kept where it can be readily used in repairing streets in the winter.

The rocks are being raked up on Twelfth street and hauled off. These are signs of progress and now let there be co-operation to sprinkle the unsprinkled 600 feet of State street.

CORNER STONE LAID.
The New Opera House and Odd Fellows Temple Holds an Audience.

The laying of the corner stone for the new Odd Fellows Temple took place this afternoon with impressive ceremonies. The program outlined in last evening's JOURNAL was carried out, but too late for a detailed account in today's paper. A shade had also been erected on the north side facing the auditorium for the speakers and singers.

A floor had been laid over the completed basement, and seats were provided for the members of the order, several drayload of chairs being on the ground.

Many visiting members of the order were present and it was an altogether auspicious send-off for the new building.

The weather was much pleasanter than it has been for several days, the extreme heat having modified its ardor.

CIRCUIT COURT. Wrightman Wins His Suit--Rodgers and Craft Cases Dismissed.

In the case of Simmonds & Son vs. F. T. Wrightman, the jury returned a verdict with costs for defendant. Holmes & Kellogg were attorneys for plaintiff; Slater & Kaiser for defendant.

The motions to dismiss in the Rodgers and Craft cases were allowed and the bondsmen exonerated.

The case of M. Alexander vs. E. C. Herron and F. Levy et al. was set for Wednesday morning. When it came up on motion of plaintiff to strike out part of answer was argued and overruled. The case was then continued at request of plaintiff, who wishes to file another motion. T. J. Wilson is attorney for plaintiff.

This left nothing for the jury and juries were excused until Thursday morning.

Recovered Their Team. Radabaugh & Francis, will return home today with their heavy team that was stolen about 10 days ago by an ex-convict. The ex-convict sold the team and buggy to the American Livery and Sale stable, on Front and Jefferson street, Portland, receiving only $50 for them. Up to the present time no trace of the man can be found, although the officers are on the look-out.

Golding, of St Paul convey 12,000 pounds to the Charles Ehlerman Malt & Hop Company, of New York.

Radicals in Control.
By Associated Press to the Journal.

New York, June 13.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: "There is a general feeling in diplomatic circles that the European powers have been united by the dismissal of Prince Ching, and that in purging the T'ung Li Yamen of all moderate men, the Empress Dowager has gone over to the Boxers, bag and baggage, and that the powers had been forced to co-operate in the restoration of order at Peking, even if the services of the Russian troops are required."

"The foreign reinforcements are daily expected. The present isolated position at Peking, the destruction of foreign property in the country, and the insecurity of life are directly attributable to the treachery of the Chinese Government."

O. N. G. ENCAMPMENT.

Probably Cannot Be Held at the State Fair Grounds.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
The board had a meeting with Adjutant General Gantonbein and Messrs. Westcott and Eckerlin, of the local committee, to consider the military encampment. It was decided that it would interfere too much with the preparations for the fair and the encampment may be held outside of the fair grounds if it comes to Salem. It is estimated that it would demand the fair $1000 to let the grounds be used for the militia, in the way of interfering with training on the track, and changing the crop arrangements.

The premium list for 1900 is ready. It is a complete and attractive book and copies can be had at The Journal office.

Mere Pardons Asked.
If Governor Geer would act favorably on all the petitions for pardon which are pouring in on him, it seems that the new wing at the pen would not be needed, and the lamented Penneyer would find his brightest glory eclipsed. The latest applications are for the pardon of William Hanna, who is in the pen for receiving stolen goods, and Geo. Bartmes, serving 10 years for manslaughter.

AFTER VICE-PRESIDENCY

Considering Men Who are Available.

DEWEY MAY NOT GET ONTO THE BRYAN TICKET

William of the Platte Leads His County on the Tax List--Democratic Sub Committee to Meet Friday.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
CHICAGO, June 13.—Chairman Jones, of the Democratic National committee, will meet the sub-committee on arrangements for the convention at Kansas City next Friday, when the selection of a temporary chairman will be made. Governor Charles S. Thomas, of Colorado, seems to have an excellent chance for the position.

The Vice-Presidency.
New York, June 13.—The vice-presidency is the principal subject discussed by Republicans of this city. Senator Platt says:

"Governor Roosevelt is not to be thought of in connection with the vice-presidential nomination."

"I cannot see anything new in the situation," said Senator Aldrich, of Rhode Island. "Of course, I favor the nomination of Secretary Long."

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, declared that the entire New England delegation will be for Long for vice-president.

William Pays Taxes.

By Associated Press to the Journal.
LINCOLN, Neb., June 13.—Reports of the city assessor shows that William J. Bryan pays more taxes on personal property, than any other man in Lincoln or Lancaster county.

McLEAN'S FRIENDS FAVORING DEWEY

COLUMBUS, O., June 13.—The Democratic state convention met today. Webster Huntington, of Columbus, was introduced as temporary chairman. The temporary organization was made permanent, and the reports of committees on credentials, rules and regulations were adopted.

COLUMBUS, O., June 13.—The McLean men have so far controlled the preliminary meetings but they are evidently playing for harmony more than for places, and may not carry out the same program in the Democratic state convention tomorrow. John R. McLean's friends are in the majority on the new state central committee that was selected this evening, and will select the campaign chairman and members of the state executive committee at a later date.

It is claimed that the McLean men (insuring control of the party organization for another year, have all they wanted, and, although they could carry everything tomorrow, as they also have a majority on the convention committee, there will be a free-for-all contest for the state ticket and delegates and alternates at large to Kansas City convention.

The application to the mayor last night for twenty policemen at the convention hall tomorrow led some to believe that there may be trouble. The opposition to Mr. McLean comes from silver extremists. The ultra-silver delegates also appear to be dissatisfied with the proposition to endorse Dewey for vice-presidential nomination, the agitation for whose candidacy continues.

Deputy Prosecuting Attorneys.
J. N. Hart, of Dallas, Prosecuting Attorney, elect, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Hart has been elected to appoint John H. McNary, of Salem, deputy for Marion county and R. L. Conner, of McMinnville, for Yamhill county. Mr. Hart has not decided who shall be his deputies in Linn, Tillamook and Polk counties.
